

Canterbury Club

The Canterbury Club, under the leadership of Chaplain Thomas and president Dick Nolan, is the Episcopal Church organization on the Trinity campus. It is divided into three sections: Seniors and Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen, each meeting individually on alternating Tuesdays.

At their meetings the sections have lectures about current affairs, the Church, etc., by some of the leading men of the Episcopal Church. Besides these meetings the club has Sunday Communion breakfasts and two term dinners; members of the club also attend various Church conferences in the New England area. The Canterbury Club promotes interest in the Episcopal Church, and it does so in an educational way.
