

Honor Society To Induct New Members

Thomaston

THOMASTON — The annual induction of Thomaston Chapter of the National Honor Society members will be today at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Dr. Richard T. Nolan, associate professor of philosophy and history at Mattuck Community College, Waterbury, will speak.

Nolan, an Episcopal Church priest, is a part-time vicar of St. Paul's Parish, Bantam. He is the editor of "The Dicanata Now," a volume in historical theology, and has contributed book reviews and articles to periodicals.

His biography is included in Marquis' "Who's Who in the East" and "Who's Who in Religion."

Bicentennial Films

Connecticut history will be reviewed in the films "Yankee Calling" and "Resolved To Be Free," scheduled to be shown Friday at 7 p.m. by Bicentennial Commission member Joseph Wassong.

The free program is in the high school auditorium, commission Secretary Tina Woods said.
