JAMES W. WICKENDEN
HEADMASTER

December 24, 1954

Dear Mr. Nolan:

Richard has had a fine fall. I don't know of a boy in school who seems to enjoy the life and who has more of an outgoing personality than he has.

He is doing fine work academically, taking a real interest in school from the point of extra-curricular activities and he is an excellent citizen.

We especially appreciate his fine attitude regarding the church.

Cordially yours,

Mr. Thomas M. Nolan, Jr.
