

Richard T. Nolan

Waltham Youth Enters New Haven Seminary in Fall

Richard T. Nolan, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Nolan, Jr. of 194 Villa St.,

Waltham, will begin formal preparation, for the ministry of the Episcopal Church in the fall at the Berkeley (Episcopal) Divinity School in New Haven, Connecticut. The prospective clergyman is a member of Christ Church Parish, Waltham, and a, postulant; for Holy Orders in the Episcopal Diocese of Mass.

A graduate of Boston Latin School and Tabor Academy, Mr. Nolan is also a member of the Class of 1959 at Trinity College, Hartford. While at Trinity, he was engaged in tutorial and graduate work in the Departments of Education, Philosophy and Religion, as well as the regular undergraduate courses. His extra-curricula campus activities included president of the Canterbury and Education Clubs, secretary of the Chapel Cabinet, manager of the freshman football and swimming teams, reporter for the school newspaper and a seminar leader for the freshman orientation program.

While in seminary, Mr. Nolan will maintain an active relationship with his Hartford alma mater as the examination reader for the chairman of the Department of Religion.